

Making It Happen

How do we make something happen? We find information that we put together into a plan. We set a time and then we work the plan at the appropriate time. We plan a vacation. We plan shopping. We plan building projects or cleaning projects. We are not able to plan people. We can't plan our child to clean his room. We can plan for the yard work to be done, but we are not as successful at planning someone to do it. Not even ourselves.

We can't make a person do anything. We can give them a reason why they should and incentive to do it, but we can't force anyone. We can't make them nice. We can't make them move faster or plan better. We can't make them like something. We can't coax them to try it, but they may not like it. We can't make them like fishing or golf. We can't make them like Jesus either. And even if they like Jesus, we can't force them to make him king of their life.

We can make something happen for us. We find the reasons and meaning behind the things God has done. We understand that there are bigger things at stake than our comfort. We believe in God, and we believe the words he has spoken. We act on those words in obedience to him. We choose to obey what he said, and God responds just like he said he would because he promised.

We can't make happiness happen. We can make obedience happen. We know and trust God enough to know that when we obey, he will do what he promised. When we make Jesus king, he will forgive and give us grace. We can make salvation happen because God has given a promise to those who obey. We can take advantage of gifts and promises of God. When two plan together, we can have confidence in the results. We can have the Holy Spirit because God promised. We can have redemption, blessings, and adoption as children of God. We make things happen when we can work with someone willing to work with us.

- Use Bill Pay through your regular bank--these checks are delivered by mail from your bank. There is no charge for this service.
